YOUR HOST: ALANA STOYAS

Founder, Flight of Fancy Travel

Alana Stoyas has spent over two decades curating beautiful moments and spaces — first as the owner of an event planning company and next at her interior design firm, and now as the founder of Flight of Fancy Travel, a tailored luxury travel advisory built on a simple belief: the most extraordinary journeys feel like secret doors, unlocked just for you.

Alana brings clients into a world she knows intimately, built on relationships cultivated over years, not transactions, with a particular devotion to gastronomy and viticulture — the artistry of a perfectly composed table, a cellar's rarest vintage, and a meal that tells the story of the land it comes from.

Her expertise centers on Europe's most storied regions — Italy, Greece, and France, where she believes the real magic lives just past the places where everyone else stops looking.

For this Bordeaux journey, Alana has partnered with Tablemouvant to open one such door — into Grand Cru cellars, private château life, and a table reserved for those she's invited to bring along.
