

OU Capital Cookies Policy

How we use Cookies

2/10 O/U Limited (“we”) uses cookies on the website ou.capital (“the Website”). This policy outlines our cookie practices and your control options.

Cookies are small text files that websites send to your device (computer, smartphone, tablet) during your visit. They may include an anonymous unique identifier. They serve to recognize your device and enhance your browsing experience. Our Website uses:

- Strictly necessary cookies: Essential for website functionality, including secure area access
- Functionality cookies: Remember your preferences and settings (language, cookie consent)
- Analytical cookies: Gather anonymous usage data to improve site performance and user experience

When we include links to third-party websites, please bear in mind they will have privacy and cookie policies that govern the use of any information you submit. We recommend you read their policies as we are not responsible or liable for any third party's privacy practices.

Managing Your Cookie Preferences

The browsers of most computers, smartphones, and other web-enabled devices are typically set up to accept cookies. If you wish to amend your cookie preferences for the website or any other website, you can do this through your browser settings.

Cookies are often used to enable and improve certain functions on the Website. Switching certain cookies off may affect how the Website works, and you may not be able to access all or parts of the Website.

Policy Updates

This Cookies Policy may be revised periodically. Significant changes will be communicated by posting the updated policy on our Website.
