

The Future Careers & Education Tech Newsletter

The bi-weekly ed-tech industry newsletter from KnowMeQ

Issue 15
May 28, 2026

PREVIEW

In this issue, we look at a growing disconnect between the skills modern workplaces demand and the foundational skills many learners are developing.

From literacy and math outcomes to adult participation in education, recent signals highlight challenges that extend beyond classrooms and into the future workforce.

Here's what caught our eye this week.
