

Books play a crucial role in children's growth in a variety of ways—emotionally, intellectually, socially, and even physically in some cases. As part of Nevada Hands & Voices' mission to support, encourage, and educate families with Deaf and Hard of Hearing (DHH) children, we are proud to offer our Growing Book by Book Lending Library. This resource, funded in part by the Nevada Early Hearing and Detection Intervention (EHDI) Program, is designed to help DHH children and their families continue in their growth to reach their full potential through literacy. The Growing Book by Book Lending Library is a collection of books available to Nevada Hands & Voices families for free. There are hundreds of books to choose from for all readers, including books featuring different languages, modalities, hearing technology, with Deaf and Hard of Hearing characters and by Deaf and Hard of Hearing authors. Many books are available as recommended by the Hands & Voices O.U.R. Children's Safety Project, Hands & Voices CIRCLE of Change, and the American Society for Deaf Children.

Los libros forman un papel fundamental en el crecimiento de los niños de muchas maneras: emocional, intelectual, social e incluso física en algunos casos. Como parte de la misión de Nevada Hands & Voices de apoyar, alentar y educar a las familias con niños Sordos y con pérdida auditiva (DHH, por sus siglas en inglés), nos enorgullece ofrecer nuestra Biblioteca Circulante Growing Book by Book.

Este recurso, financiado en parte por el Programa de Detección e Intervención Temprana de la Audición de Nevada (EHDI, por sus siglas en inglés), está diseñado para ayudar a los niños DHH y a sus familias a continuar con su desarrollo y alcanzar su máximo potencial a través de la alfabetización.

La Biblioteca Circulante Growing Book by Book es una colección de libros disponibles de manera gratuita para las familias de Nevada Hands & Voices. Hay cientos de títulos para elegir, adecuados para todos los lectores, incluyendo libros en diferentes idiomas, modalidades, sobre tecnología auditiva, con personajes Sordos y con pérdida auditiva, así como de autores Sordos y con pérdida auditiva.

Muchos de estos libros han sido recomendados por proyectos y organizaciones de confianza como el Proyecto de Seguridad Infantil O.U.R. de Hands & Voices, el CIRCLE of Change de Hands & Voices, y la American Society for Deaf Children.

Families with DHH children birth-21 years old across Nevada may create an account at www.nvhandsandvoices.org/lending-library to begin checking out books at no cost to them.

At this time, NVHV is not able to check books out directly to professionals working with Deaf and Hard of Hearing youth ages birth-21 years old. However, our staff is happy to collaborate with community partners to connect mutual clients to the Lending Library. Please email info@nvhandsandvoices.org for more information.

Las familias con niños Sordos y con pérdida auditiva (DHH) desde el nacimiento hasta los 21 años en todo Nevada pueden crear una cuenta en www.nvhandsandvoices.org/lending-library para comenzar a pedir libros prestados sin ningún costo.

En este momento, NVHV no puede prestar libros directamente a profesionales que trabajan con jóvenes Sordos y con pérdida auditiva desde el nacimiento hasta los 21 años. Sin embargo, nuestro personal estará encantado de colaborar con socios comunitarios para conectar a clientes en común con la Biblioteca Circulante.

The Hands & Voices Advisory Council for Latino Family Support

Recognizing that a significant number of families across Hands & Voices (H&V) Chapters and Programs use Spanish as a first language, H&V is motivated to expand already existing efforts in local Chapters as well as at H&V HQ, through the H&V Advisory Council with the purposes of: pooling resources, providing thought leadership, and formalizing support for innovation around supporting families who are Spanish speaking. The H&V HQ Advisory Council for Latino Family Support provides an opportunity for Latino self-determination and leadership in Latino support. The H&V HQ Community for Latino Family Support is an important think tank to support the Advisory Council by drawing upon broad-based input from a wide range of interested participants who serve Latino families.
