

The Dark is Full of Wonder[!]

Activities to help children discover the magic of darker evenings.

Storal

My torchlight adventure

Can you find...

☐

Something shiny

☐

A oddly-shaped shadow

☐

The moon

☐

A light far away

☐

Something you can hear but can't see

☐

A star

Draw a picture of what you've found

A large, empty white rectangular area with rounded corners, intended for a child to draw a picture of what they have found during their torchlight adventure.

The night sky

What can you spot in the sky tonight?

☐

The moon

☐

Clouds

☐

A star

☐

An aeroplane

☐

A shooting star

☐

A satellite

Can you draw tonight's sky?

A large, empty white rectangular area with rounded corners, intended for a child to draw their observation of the night sky. It is set against a light beige background within a larger rounded rectangle.

Who's awake after dark?

Try an owl hoot

Stretch your wings like a bat

Creep quietly like a fox

Curl up like a hedgehog

What other animals are awake at night?

Shadow play

You'll need:

- ☐ A torch
- ☐ Your hands
- ☐ A plain wall
- ☐ A grown-up

Place your hands between the torch and the wall and see what shadow animal appears.

A rabbit

A spider

A bird

A dog

Storal