

THE MEMOIR CLUB

HOTEL FACTSHEET

Our contemporary hotel, although grounded in the present, is inspired by the Memoir Club created in 1920. Twelve friends were drawn from the deeply influential group of writers, intellectuals, philosophers and artists known as the Bloomsbury Set. Its legacy can be experienced throughout the hotel, from the art deco style interiors to the collection of commissioned artworks, such as the Virginia Woolf portrait that sits in the lobby.

The Memoir Club is a place to eat, drink, meet and sleep. A place where you can feel a part of something special and unexpectedly delightful.

Crafted with subtle nods to the rich fabric of this special part of the city, The Memoir Club guestrooms are beautifully designed to put you at ease and feature everything you need to make you feel right at home. Each features a supremely comfy Hypnos mattress, eco-friendly amenities, smart TV, Nespresso machine, tea and coffee tray, a safe that can fit a laptop, direct dial retro style phone, free high-speed Wi-Fi, and of course plenty of charging points for tech-savvy travellers. And to help guests stay on track with fitness goals, there is a gym.

Three highly flexible and stylish meeting spaces (450 m²) are perfect for a host of corporate and social events. The Memoir Club offers leading technology and inspiring design teamed with bespoke food and beverage options. Keynes, the largest suite, can accommodate up to 144 in a cabaret setting or 264 theatre style. It takes its name from Memoir Club member John Maynard Keynes, one of the most influential economists and philosophers of the twentieth century.

ADELINE

Designed to make you feel at home, and just a little bit glamorous, Adeline's namesake is Adeline Virginia Woolf, the writer, former local resident, and member of The Memoir Club.

Our chefs have crafted a delicious Eastern Mediterranean menu inspired by Virginia Woolf's extensive travels. Choose from delectable small plates, sharing plates or signature dishes for lunch or dinner. Fixed price menus and bespoke private dining menus are available for groups and parties. Adeline also serves afternoon tea. Sip on one of our signature Champagne cocktails that pay homage to Memoir Club members such as the Keynes Twister or Adeline Royale.

Getting to The Memoir Club couldn't be easier as there are four stations in the vicinity, plenty of buses - including night buses - and although we don't have onsite parking, there are car parks nearby.
