

THE MEMOIR CLUB

MEETINGS & EVENTS

The Memoir Club is a 4-star independent boutique hotel located in Bloomsbury, just a five-minute walk from Euston Station and 10-minute walk from Kings Cross St Pancras. The Memoir Club offers leading technology and inspiring design teamed with bespoke food and beverage options.

The highly flexible and stylish meeting spaces are perfect for a host of corporate and social events. The Memoir Club has 450 m<sup>2</sup> of meeting space comprising three suites - Keynes, Woolf and Club - that can be divided into seven spaces, each with high-spec inbuilt AV and suited to both in person and hybrid events. The meeting rooms have individual AC and lighting controls.

The Keynes Suite (205 m<sup>2</sup>) is the largest room and is pillar free. It can accommodate up to 264 theatre style or 144 in a cabaret set-up. The Keynes Suite has one 136-inch screen and two 98-inch screens with inbuilt audio. It can be partitioned into a smaller space called Keynes 1+2, or split into Keynes 1 and 2, with catering in the Keynes anteroom. It takes its name from Memoir Club member John Maynard Keynes, one of the most influential economists and philosophers of the twentieth century.

The Woolf Suite (142 m<sup>2</sup>) is also pillar free and can accommodate up to 180 theatre style or 90 in a cabaret set-up. It has a 110-inch screen with inbuilt audio, plus two 98-inch screens. It can be partitioned into a smaller space called Woolf 1+2, or Woolf 1 and 2, and interconnects to the Woolf anteroom for catering. The space is named after the English writer – and Memoir Club member– Virginia Woolf who was considered one of the most important modernist 20th-century authors. Look out for the hidden prose extracted from her novels that have been woven into the carpet.

The Club Suite (104 m<sup>2</sup>) is beautifully styled and features hi-spec inbuilt AV. The room has a 75-inch screen, plus two 65-inch screens, and lends itself to a variety of set-ups for smaller meetings, split as syndicate rooms or for private dining. Each of the screens in The Club Suite also has whiteboards that can be used alongside the screen. The Club Suite can be split into three rooms - Grant, Strachey and Forster - or two sections combined and one smaller boardroom. Lunch and refreshments are served in rooms or the adjacent foyer. There is a discreet pillar at the very rear of the suite, so this does not typically restrict any views.
