HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MONTH

What does Paris have in store for you in November? First of all, the grand finale of the Rolex Paris Masters at Paris Bercy, which ends on November 2! Ballet and opera lovers will certainly want to visit the magnificent Opéra Garnier, for its incredible architecture or its program. Also head to the Bourse de Commerce near Châtelet to discover the exhibitions Lygia Pape, Tisser l'espace and Minimal, two complementary exhibitions on space and the very language of art. Do not miss the Agnès Thurnauer exhibition at the Cognacq-Jay Museum, a work in dialogue with the past and the present, in which the emancipatory power of writing plays a central role, revealing a new interpretation of the Age of Enlightenment.
