Declaration

Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006

In accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006, we require new members of staff to provide documentary evidence that they are entitled to undertake the position applied for and have an ongoing entitlement to live and work in the United Kingdom. Therefore, all candidates shortlisted for interview are required to complete a declaration and to produce acceptable specified documentary evidence at interview.

I confirm that I am legally entitled to work in the UK ☐

Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006

We are obliged by law to operate a checking procedure for employees who have substantial access to children and young people.

I confirm that I am not barred by the Disclosure & Barring Service from working with or applying to work with children or included on the DBS Children's Barred List ☐

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended 2013)

Posts which involve substantial access to children and young people are exempt from provisions contained within this Act under which the job applicants are entitled to withhold information about any previous criminal background which is either unspent or would otherwise be considered 'spent' under the terms of the Act. Changes to the legislation in 2013, however, mean that spent convictions may be protected and do not have to be disclosed to prospective employers. Employers cannot take protected offences into account when making employment decisions. If the job for which you have applied involves substantial access to children and young people, and you have been shortlisted for the post, you will be provided with a form on which you will be asked to disclose any relevant previous criminal background. We will provide more information on protected offences at that stage.

If you are the successful applicant, you will be required to have an Enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service disclosure & we will also check the DBS barred list (children). Failure to complete this form will result in your application not proceeding any further. The possession of a criminal record will not automatically debar you from consideration for the post for which you have applied. Any information given will be treated as confidential and will only be used in relation to the post for which you have applied.

I agree that the appropriate enquiry may be made to the DBS ☐
