

Qualified Teacher (SEN)

We are recruiting an additional Teacher/Tutor to join our highly skilled team, supporting young people age 16+ who have special educational needs and require an innovative, bespoke approach to education and preparation for adulthood.

Teaching sessions will be delivered on a one-to-one basis in a variety of settings such as libraries, student homes or at BTGM centres in Worcestershire and Gloucestershire. Working collaboratively with the team, who coordinate the students' timetables and deliver activities to support wider aspects of students' development, you will also provide advice and guidance on appropriate educational activities and courses. An important aspect of the role is monitoring, evidencing and reporting accurately on academic progress.

We are looking for an engaging, confident individual with extensive SEN experience to support, guide and inspire young people with additional needs. You will have a patient and empathetic personality, and a passion for working with students who face significant barriers to accessing education, poor mental health and very low self-confidence.

We are committed to supporting every student to succeed socially, emotionally and academically. We need a motivated and inspirational individual committed to delivering an excellent education with kindness, empathy, imagination and compassion.

Working hours and salary are negotiable for the right candidate. We are offering a term time only plus 2 weeks (in summer) Contract.

If you wish to apply please complete our Application Form available on our website and email this to enquiries@btgm.co.uk. We will assess applications on a rolling basis and may shortlist and invite candidates to interview before the closing date.

Closing date is Friday 5 September

Interviews will be held on Tuesday 16 September
