Commitment to Inclusivity and Diversity

Here at Let's Talk Well we want to be an organisation that's representative of the communities we serve, which is why we strive for diversity of age, gender identity, sexual orientation, physical or mental ability, ethnicity and perspective. We try to create an encouraging, caring, supportive environment where everyone, from any background, can be themselves and fulfil their potential at work.

Please make us aware of any reasonable adjustments we may need to make for you and particularly address any special requirements you may have if you are invited for interview.

Keeping children, young people and families safe

Let's Talk Well is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and families and expects all staff to share this commitment.

As part of our Safer Recruitment Policy you must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and an enhanced

Disclosure and Barring check. You will be interviewed and assessed against the criteria set out in the job description and person specification. We are particularly careful to enquire into the character and background of applicants for appointments to posts that (a) involve direct and indirect contact with children and vulnerable adults or supervise those who have direct or indirect contact with children or vulnerable adults, (b) who are in positions of trust and influence and (c) who, by virtue of the authority and responsibility inherent in the post they hold, might be expected to be positively suitable to work with children and vulnerable adults. Seeking this information is not, in anyway, to reflect upon applicants' integrity but is necessary to protect the vulnerable and to assist us in making safe recruitment decisions.

The declaration section of the application form must be completed.

The post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, therefore, all convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as 'spent' must be declared.

Providing false information is an offence and could result in the application being rejected or summary dismissal, if the applicant is already in post, and possible referral to the police.

We recognise the contribution that people with criminal records can make as employees and welcome applications from them. A person's criminal record will not, in itself, debar that person from being appointed to this post. Any information given will be treated in the strictest confidence. All cases will be examined on an individual basis. A copy of our Recruitment of Ex-Offenders policy can be made available by contacting our HR team.

All employment offers are made subject to the following checks

- satisfactory clearance from the Disclosure and Barring Service where applicable;
- satisfactory references
- right to work check
- satisfactory health check

About Let's Talk Well – Eating Difficulties Service (TEDS)

The Let's Talk Well Eating Difficulties Service, also known as the TEDS service, was developed in response to increasing referrals and long NHS wait times. Our team specialises in early intervention for young people aged 9 to 25 who are experiencing emerging eating difficulties or are in recovery.

Recognising the complex and often ambivalent nature of eating difficulties, alongside common co-occurring mental health challenges, TEDS offers longer term support, with interventions lasting up to 25 weeks.

Using a person-centred and proactive approach, our experienced clinicians work within the community to support young people's mental health and wellbeing. We aim to provide timely, compassionate care that addresses both the emotional and behavioural aspects of eating difficulties.

TEDS works in close partnership with the Gloucestershire NHS Eating Disorder Service, ensuring continuity of care and collaborative support for those who may need more specialist input.

Our Mission, Ethos and Values:

Let's Talk Well is a Christian led charity that is not affiliated to any particular denomination, church or group. We provide services to anyone of any faith or none and we employ staff from any faith or none. As an organisation we believe that the Christian faith provides the foundation and motivation for the work of the charity and is the reason why we do what we do. Our mission to improve, preserve and promote good mental health and wellbeing amongst children, young people and families is borne from Jesus' words; "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." John 10:10.

An outworking of our Christian ethos means that we expect all representatives of the charity to treat everyone equally, with care and respect regardless of their race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnic background, beliefs, status, ability or class. The ethos is given life through our relationships; the way we work together and behave with one another and those we serve, are a demonstration and authentication of our ethos.
