

GIIGNL
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
SANTIAGO | April 6-8, 2025

Item 10 - Energy Transition in Chile: lights and shadows

Mr. Thomas Keller

Board member GNL Quintero and Colbún Perú, former CEO of Codelco and Colbún

Mr. Keller has had a 40 year long career in mining (where he was CFO and later CEO of Collahuasi, one of the world's largest copper mines, and CFO and later CEO of CODELCO, the world's largest copper producer), energy (where he held planning and finance positions in Shell UK, and was CEO of Colbún-one of Chile's largest electricity generators), and infrastructure (where he was Managing Partner for Latin American Infrastructure at Brookfield, and CEO of Cencosud's supermarkets division).

He currently sits on the Board of Directors of GNL Quintero (owned by EIG, Fluxys and Enap), Colbún Perú (owned by Colbún), Fenix Power Perú (owned by Colbún Perú and Abu Dhabi Investment), Kupfer Hermanos (Industrial Supplies), Ameco Chile (mining services), Ingevec (engineering), and Stracon Group Chile (mining services), and is a Senior Fellow at the Adolfo Ibañez Business School (Strategy Professor at MBA Program).

GIIGNL

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

SANTIAGO | April 6-8, 2025

Item 10 - Energy Transition in Chile: lights and shadows

Throughout his career, Mr. Keller has held multiple board/committee positions in organizations such as the Chilean Mining Council, The Copper Club (UK), the Chilean Power Generators Association, the Chilean Industrial Association, the Chilean chapter of Business Leaders for Climate Change and the Chilean branch of the Gender Parity Initiative.

Mr. Keller holds a Commercial Engineering degree from the Adolfo Ibañez Business School in Chile and an MBA from the University of Chicago, speaks Spanish, English and German, and has three daughters.