

Mizuho Bank secures triple win at The Asian Banker Awards 2025

Mizuho Bank, Ltd. has won three prestigious awards at The Asian Banker Awards 2025. The bank has been named the Best Corporate, Investment and Wholesale Bank in Japan in recognition of its vision and execution of market-leading corporate, investment and wholesale banking propositions, as well as Best Asian Global Payments Bank in Asia Pacific for its exceptional performance, superior capabilities and forward-thinking approach in providing cutting-edge payments solution across the region. Moreover, the bank also received The Bankers' Choice Awards: Best Corporate Trade Finance Deal in Asia Pacific, highlighting its commitment to delivering exceptional value to its clients. This award specifically recognizes Mizuho's pivotal role in supporting Metro Pacific Tollways Corporation (MPTC), one of the leading regional toll road platforms in Southeast Asia, in a significant cross-border acquisition.

Awards ceremony in Jakarta

The Asian Banker (TAB) is a media company specializing in finance in Asia, and has been recognizing leaders in the financial industry since 2001. This year's awards were announced at the annual TAB Awards ceremony held in Jakarta, Indonesia on May 22, 2025.

Mizuho is proud to receive these distinguished awards, which reflect its ongoing commitment to delivering effective and innovative solutions and fostering strong partnerships with its clients. In today's dynamic financial environment, Mizuho's focus remains steadfast on anticipating the evolving needs of clients and proactively developing original solutions that empower their success.