Overview

The LaneX Syndicate is a copy trading strategy managed by EliteTraders LLC. The program operates through a regulated broker's infrastructure, allowing participants to follow the trading activity of a master account. Clients retain full ownership and control of their individual accounts at all times.

Objective

The strategy aims to pursue capital appreciation while maintaining a disciplined risk framework. The approach is designed to navigate macroeconomic trends through short- to medium-term trading signals.

---

Strategy Profile

- Assets Traded: G10 FX, commodities, and major global equity indices
  - Approach: Global macro insights combined with risk-managed position sizing
  - Average Holding Period: 1–14 days
  - Tactical Focus: Responding to macro shifts, volatility events, and capital flow dynamics

Risk Management

- Per-Trade Risk: Targeted at 1–2% of capital, based on conviction and market conditions
  - Leverage: Up to 1:30, subject to broker-imposed limits and regulatory standards
  - Capital Protection: Hedging and risk controls may be applied in periods of elevated uncertainty

Terms of Participation

- Minimum Allocation: $10,000 USD
  - Maximum Recommended Allocation (Pilot Phase): $100,000 USD
  - Lock-Up Period: None; clients retain direct control of their funds
  - Fee Structure: 20% performance-based fee; no management fee
  - Onboarding: Participation requires account setup with a designated regulated broker. Full instructions are provided upon application.

Regulatory and Operational Note

EliteTraders LLC does not take custody of client funds. All trading activity is conducted via a regulated broker under a copy trading framework, where clients mirror trades from the master account. Clients remain the legal owners of their brokerage accounts at all times.
