Jesus: The Redeemer

HEBREWS 3:1-19

CORE TRUTH

Week of September 21, 2025

Jesus is our redeemer. He sets us free from sin—not just the guilt, but the power it holds over us. We’ve been brought into something new: a life of freedom, forgiveness, and belonging in his kingdom.

WELCOME to remind us why we’re here.

⌚ Spend about 5 minutes here.

Mission – To become more like Jesus – together.

Vision – We work out our salvation side-by-side—with honesty, humility, and hope. We walk with one another, not just to talk about Jesus, but to be transformed by him. (Philippians 2:12-13)

Guidelines – Our Group Guidelines help us live out our mission and vision with kindness and humility. We encourage you to read and discuss the guidelines together regularly—they can be found on the last page.

HEAD to help us examine what the word shows and let in what’s true.

⌚ Spend about 10 minutes here.

- What do you notice about the difference between Moses and Jesus?
- What warnings does the writer give about hardening our hearts—and why do you think that matters?

HEART to help us wrestle with what we believe and be with each other in it.

⌚ Spend about 30 minutes here.

- Where do you feel tempted to drift, doubt, or disconnect from Jesus right now?
- How do you tend to respond when someone lovingly speaks truth into your life? What makes that kind of community hard—or healing—for you?
- What would it look like to let Jesus —and the people He’s placed in your life—redeem the places where resistance or isolation have taken root?

HANDS to help us live out the truth with the Spirit as we go out into the world.

⌚ Spend about 15 minutes here.

- Meditate on the following reflection now and throughout the week: What would it look like for me to live like Jesus is actually enough – especially when I’m tempted to harden my heart or go it alone?
- Use the following prayer based on Psalms 95 + 51 to close your time together:

Lord, today—if I hear your voice—help me not to harden my heart. Create in me a clean heart, O God.
Renew a right spirit within me. Keep me close to you, and surround me with people who speak life and truth.
You are enough. Help me trust you.

DISCIPLESHIP GROUP GUIDELINES

- Safe Group: We strive for an environment where everyone can be open, and honest about his or her struggles and victories.
- Confidentiality: What is said in the group stays in the group.
- Listen: We want to value one another by really listening to what is being shared. Try to avoid thinking about how you are going to respond while someone is sharing.
- Pause: Allowing a pause in the conversation after one person shares and before the next person shares gives the person sharing a chance to finish. A pause also gives the group an opportunity to consider before responding.
- Silence: It is important to allow silence in the group as it provides an opportunity for people to think deeply, to gather their thoughts in order to share, and to genuinely consider what others have shared.
- One Conversation at a Time: Be considerate of others as they are sharing. No side conversations.
- No Fixing: We are not here to fix each other; Jesus does that part. Give encouragement and ask questions, but try not to solve or fix one another.
- No Rescuing: When people are sharing something deeply personal, please resist the tendency to try to make them feel better about themselves or their situation by providing immediate condolences. This will often cause people to stop sharing.
- Be Curious: By asking the next question, we communicate genuine interest. We keep the conversation moving forward while building relationships and intimacy.
- Be Self-Aware: Be mindful of how you are personally affecting the small group environment through your words, actions, and non-verbal communication. Be sensitive about the amount of time you share, whether too much (dominating) or not enough (hiding).
- Use "I" Statements: It is very easy to talk about other people's issues, but, for our purposes, we want to put ourselves on the table. Use "I" statements rather than "them", "the church", "people", "you", "us", "we", etc.
- Resolve Conflict Biblically: As a group we commit to extend grace to one another. Conflict is not bad, it's an opportunity for growth. We are all being transformed to be more like Jesus. Conflict and change are a part of that journey. (Matthew 18)
- Manage Technology: Let's respect one another by silencing alerts on our devices.
