

HEAD to help us examine what the word shows and let in what's true.

- What word or detail of this account do you find yourself most drawn to?
- What does Jesus reveal to you in this passage about himself?

HEART to help us wrestle with what we believe and be with each other in it.

- Using this account as a metaphor, where do you find yourself in this story today? (I.e. are you fishing because you don't know what else to do? Not feeling particularly close? Are you experiencing futility in catching nothing? Are you sensing Jesus leading you to obey him in a specific way? Are you reaping the haul that is clearly his work? Are you enjoying breakfast with him?)

HANDS to help us bring the truth into our lives and go out into the world with the Holy Spirit.

- Where might Jesus be calling you to cast your nets on the other side of the boat this week? (I.e. where are you sensing him calling you to obey him in a specific way?)

LOVING THE WORLD TOGETHER

- Let's spend some time dreaming together about how we want to move out to love and serve the world and how we want to invite those who do not know Christ into "gospel hospitality" as a group this year. Do we want to serve with Napier? Do we want to do lawn care for an elderly neighbor? Do we want to invite our non-Christian friends to a happy hour with us? A Christmas party? Pray for creativity, desire and direction!

DISCIPLESHIP GROUP GUIDELINES

- Safe Group: We strive for an environment where everyone can be open and honest about his or her struggles and victories.
- Confidentiality: What is said in the group stays in the group.
- Listen: We value one another by really listening to what is being shared. Try to avoid thinking about how you are going to respond while someone is sharing.
- Pause: Allowing a pause in the conversation after someone shares gives them a true chance to finish. A Pause also gives the group an opportunity to consider before responding.
- Silence: Allowing silence in the group provides an opportunity for people to think deeply, gather their thoughts in order to share, and genuinely consider what others have shared.
- One Conversation at a Time: Be considerate of others as they are sharing. No side conversations.
- No Fixing: We are not here to fix each other; Jesus does that part. Give encouragement and ask questions, but try not to solve or fix one another.
- No Rescuing: When people are sharing something deeply personal, please resist the tendency to try to make them feel better about themselves or their situation by providing immediate condolences. This will often cause people to stop sharing.
- Be Curious: By asking the next question, we communicate genuine interest. We keep the conversation moving forward while building relationships and intimacy.
- Be Self-Aware: Be mindful of how you are personally affecting the small group environment through your words, actions, and non-verbal communication. Be sensitive about the amount of time you share, whether too much (dominating) or not enough (hiding).
- Use "I" Statements: It is very easy to talk about other people's issues, but, for our purposes, we want to put ourselves on the table. Use "I" statements rather than "them", "the church", "people", "you", "us", "we", etc.
- Resolve Conflict Biblically: As a group we commit to extend grace to one another. Conflict is not bad, it's an opportunity for growth. We are all being transformed to be more like Jesus. Conflict and change are a part of that journey. (Matthew 18)
- Manage Technology: Let's respect one another by silencing alerts on our devices.
