

New Fellowship

SETTING THE SCENE

SCRIPTURE

5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

Week of October 18, 2026

Knowing Jesus brings us into fellowship with God and a new community where we walk together in his light.

HEAD

to help us examine what the word shows and let in what's true.

- What stands out to you in this passage?
- Why do you think John emphasizes that he has heard, seen, and touched Jesus?

HEART

to help us wrestle with what we believe and be with each other in it.

- Where in your life are you more comfortable knowing things about Jesus than actually drawing near to him?
- Where are you tempted to settle for surface-level community rather than the deeper fellowship John describes?
- How does knowing that Jesus has cleansed you from sin free you to be more honest with God and others?

HANDS

to help us bring the truth into our lives and go out into the world with the Holy Spirit.

- How might growing in fellowship with God change the way you pursue fellowship with others this week?
- Read Ephesians 3:17b-19 below and give space for a time of prayer as a group in response:

"That you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God."

DISCIPLESHIP GROUP GUIDELINES

- Safe Group: We strive for an environment where everyone can be open and honest about his or her struggles and victories.
- Confidentiality: What is said in the group stays in the group.
- Listen: We value one another by really listening to what is being shared. Try to avoid thinking about how you are going to respond while someone is sharing.
- Pause: Allowing a pause in the conversation after someone shares gives them a true chance to finish. A Pause also gives the group an opportunity to consider before responding.
- Silence: Allowing silence in the group provides an opportunity for people to think deeply, gather their thoughts in order to share, and genuinely consider what others have shared.
- One Conversation at a Time: Be considerate of others as they are sharing. No side conversations.
- No Fixing: We are not here to fix each other; Jesus does that part. Give encouragement and ask questions, but try not to solve or fix one another.
- No Rescuing: When people are sharing something deeply personal, please resist the tendency to try to make them feel better about themselves or their situation by providing immediate condolences. This will often cause people to stop sharing.
- Be Curious: By asking the next question, we communicate genuine interest. We keep the conversation moving forward while building relationships and intimacy.
- Be Self-Aware: Be mindful of how you are personally affecting the small group environment through your words, actions, and non-verbal communication. Be sensitive about the amount of time you share, whether too much (dominating) or not enough (hiding).
- Use "I" Statements: It is very easy to talk about other people's issues, but, for our purposes, we want to put ourselves on the table. Use "I" statements rather than "them", "the church", "people", "you", "us", "we", etc.
- Resolve Conflict Biblically: As a group we commit to extend grace to one another. Conflict is not bad, it's an opportunity for growth. We are all being transformed to be more like Jesus. Conflict and change are a part of that journey. (Matthew 18)
- Manage Technology: Let's respect one another by silencing alerts on our devices.
