

Understanding aged care costs can feel overwhelming. This guide provides a clear overview of the fees that may apply and the payment options available to you. Every person's situation is different — please contact us or speak with a financial adviser for personalised guidance.

1. Basic Daily Fee

Current Rate	What It Covers	Who Pays
$66.80 per day	Meals, laundry, electricity, cleaning and all daily living costs	All residents — rate reviewed quarterly by the Australian Government

2. Accommodation Payment Options

Your accommodation cost is separate from the Basic Daily Fee. You have 28 days from your entry date to choose how you would like to pay.

Option	Description	Refundable?
RAD — Refundable Accommodation Deposit	A lump sum paid upfront	Yes — refunded in full when you leave care
DAP — Daily Accommodation Payment	An ongoing daily payment, similar to rent	No
Combination — RAD + DAP	A partial lump sum plus a reduced daily payment — flexible if a full lump sum isn't preferred	Partial — the RAD portion is refunded

3. Room Pricing

Room Type	Lump Sum (RAD)	Daily Payment (DAP)
Single room with private ensuite	$550,000	$127.03 / day
Double room with ensuite — shared by two residents	$500,000	$115.48 / day
Double room with ensuite — single occupancy	$750,000	$173.22 / day

* Combination payments available — your daily rate reduces proportionally to any lump sum paid. Contact us for a personalised calculation.

* Maximum Permissible Interest Rate (MPIR) from 1 July 2026 is 8.43%

4. Means-Tested Care Fee

Some residents are asked to contribute additionally towards their care costs, based on a Centrelink income and assets assessment. If this fee applies, Centrelink will notify both you and the care provider. There are limits on the total amount you will ever pay:

Annual Cap	Lifetime Cap
$35,910.43	$86,185.23
Once reached, the Government covers remaining costs for that calendar year.	Once reached, no further means-tested fees apply for life.

Family Home: Your family home is excluded from the means test if your spouse or a dependent adult child lives there. If not, the assessed value is capped at $214,884.00.

5. Optional Additional Services

A range of personal and lifestyle services are available for an additional fee, including hairdressing and mobile X-ray services. Prices vary by service — please contact us for current pricing.
