ABOUT US

Film Camp is a fully immersive educational production company based between Los Angeles, San Francisco & Austin.

We run courses for children and young adults which involve script writing, acting, directing, make-up, costume design, cinematography and more.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Objective n° 1

Foster Creativity:

Encourage students to explore their creativity and express themselves through storytelling and filmmaking.

Objective n° 2

Technical Proficiency:

Familiarize students with filmmaking equipment and software, empowering them to use the tools effectively.

Objective n° 3

Future Opportunities:

Offer opportunities for students to interact with guest speakers, industry professionals, or filmmakers to gain insights and inspiration for potential future employment.

REVIEWS

John

"This class is great! The instructor got my 14-year-old son very engaged in the scriptwriting process. Highly recommended!"

Ronni

"Though our daughter has developmental delays, The program allowed us to see our daughter grow in such amazing ways while expressing herself through her stories!"

Tiffany

"My kids loved the Camp so so so much. Everyday was a new adventure. This was both of their first time acting and being behind the camera. They are already asking to go back. Absolutely worth it, great instructors."

Pamela

"By week's end my guy was fully involved and invested. He learned so much and loved seeing his ideas come to life.!"

Tabitha

"Amazing and unique experience. It provided my child with an opportunity to tap into a new art form. Definitely recommend!"

OUR TEAM

Our instructors are passionate filmmakers and industry professionals dedicated to inspiring the next generation of storytellers. Every team member is thoroughly background-checked, ensuring a safe, supportive, and creative environment where kids can learn and thrive.
