

Use of Network Comics – Copyright Guide (updated 2025)

Use of RiSBOD comics

The comics created in the framework of the RiSBOD (formerly RSBO) projects remain the intellectual property of their authors. Any use must mention:

- The artist's signature,
- The RiSBOD,
- and, if applicable, the researcher or research group represented.

Permitted Uses (Not-for-Profit)

Members can use comics to:

- presentations at conferences, conferences or university courses;
- research publications (theses, dissertations, reports);
- the popularization of science or dissemination on the official platforms of the RiSBOD (website, social media, exhibitions).

Attribution of the artist is mandatory for any use.

Uses requiring authorization

Before any distribution for commercial, promotional or advertising purposes, a prior agreement must be concluded with the RiSBOD and the artist concerned. This includes:

- Printed publications (books, magazines);
- Fundraising or promotional campaigns;
- Official communications from external partners.