Course Description

This 32-week, project-based high school art course provides hands-on instruction in the elements of art through a variety of creative projects. Students explore line, shape, form, color, value, texture, and space using multiple media, including different mediums including drawing, painting, sculpture, and mixed media.

The course emphasizes creativity, skill development, and artistic confidence while encouraging independent work and personal expression. Students reflect on their process, participate in informal critiques, and compile a portfolio of completed artworks demonstrating growth and understanding of foundational art concepts.
