Course Description:

This 8th grade English Language Arts course follows a structured scope and sequence that integrates reading, writing, grammar, and vocabulary instruction. Students study a variety of literary genres, including short stories, novels, poetry, and drama, while developing reading comprehension and literary analysis skills.

Writing instruction progresses through narrative, informational, and argumentative compositions, with emphasis on paragraph structure, organization, revision, and clarity. Grammar and mechanics are taught systematically and applied to student writing, reinforcing conventions of standard English.

Throughout the course, students practice speaking, listening, and critical thinking skills through discussion, written responses, and projects. The course prepares students for high school–level reading and writing expectations by building strong foundational language skills and academic independence.
