What is the true meaning of Memorial Day?

Memorial Day is "the day we pay homage to all those who didn't come home," explains author Tamra Bolton. "It is a day of solemn contemplation over the cost of freedom." It is a day to pause and reflect upon the many service members who risked and ultimately lost their lives fighting on behalf of the United States. It is also a day to honor their families.

Memorial Day Holiday – Monday, May 25th – the church office will be closed.

FBC things You Need to Know:

This past Wednesday night – at our Congregational Meeting - Jaclyn Obel was called to serve full time with our Ministerial Team. She will work with Maggie Fredericks in our Children's Ministry. She will have primary responsibility with our K-3rd grade children, freeing Maggie to work more closely with our pre-teens in 4th – 6th grades.

Martha and I are away this weekend for the high school graduation of our granddaughter, Reagan. She is now 18 years old and ready to be a student at LSU. We will be thankful to have her closer to us and excited to see God's plan unfold in her life.

Josh Jordan is preaching in my absence this weekend. I am deeply grateful to him and appreciate the devotion and hard work of all the pastors and ministers here. They are making a difference.

Remember – we are ALL ministers!

VBS begins Tuesday, June 2nd. VBS t-shirts are available in the bookstore for purchase during regular Bookstore hours.

Celebrate Freedom, Wednesday July 1st – We will start with worship in the Worship Center 7pm – 8pm, then move to the Pavilion for Ice Cream, Cupcakes, and Fireworks
