I love August!

I love August because school starts and we get serious about Church. You might not expect it, but August at FBC Covington is usually the best attended month of the year. I don't think that this year will be any different.

At this point, all of our year-round Ministries and programs have started again. I hope that you are taking some "Next Steps" to your sanctification in Christ. I want to encourage you to find a Connect Group and get involved every weekend and to also take advantage of all the Wednesday night Ministries of FBC.

You may have noticed that we started five new Connect Groups last week. We expect that this will be a banner year for studying God's word. I hope you will take advantage of it and encourage your children and grandchildren to grow in the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ.

We conducted our third congregational meeting this past Wednesday. It was brief and uneventful. Our next meeting will be what I call our "Annual Meeting."

This will be November 18 at 6:45pm in the worship center and we need all of you to be present. At that time, we affirm new deacons, elect new ministry team members, present the 2027 Church Budget, and deal with other matters to get us ready for the new year.

In light of that, we want to ask you to nominate those men that you believe would serve well as deacons. These should be men who have not served our church before as a deacon. Please do this prayerfully and thoughtfully. If God brings someone to your mind, would you please email that name to Cliff Anglin, Chairman of Deacons, at groups@fbccov.org
