

Global Footprint

Since the opening of a first store in Laval, Québec, we have continued to grow and make a positive impact globally. As one of the world's largest convenience retailers, we have a footprint across the globe.

31

Countries & Territories

16.8K

Stores

~149K

Employees

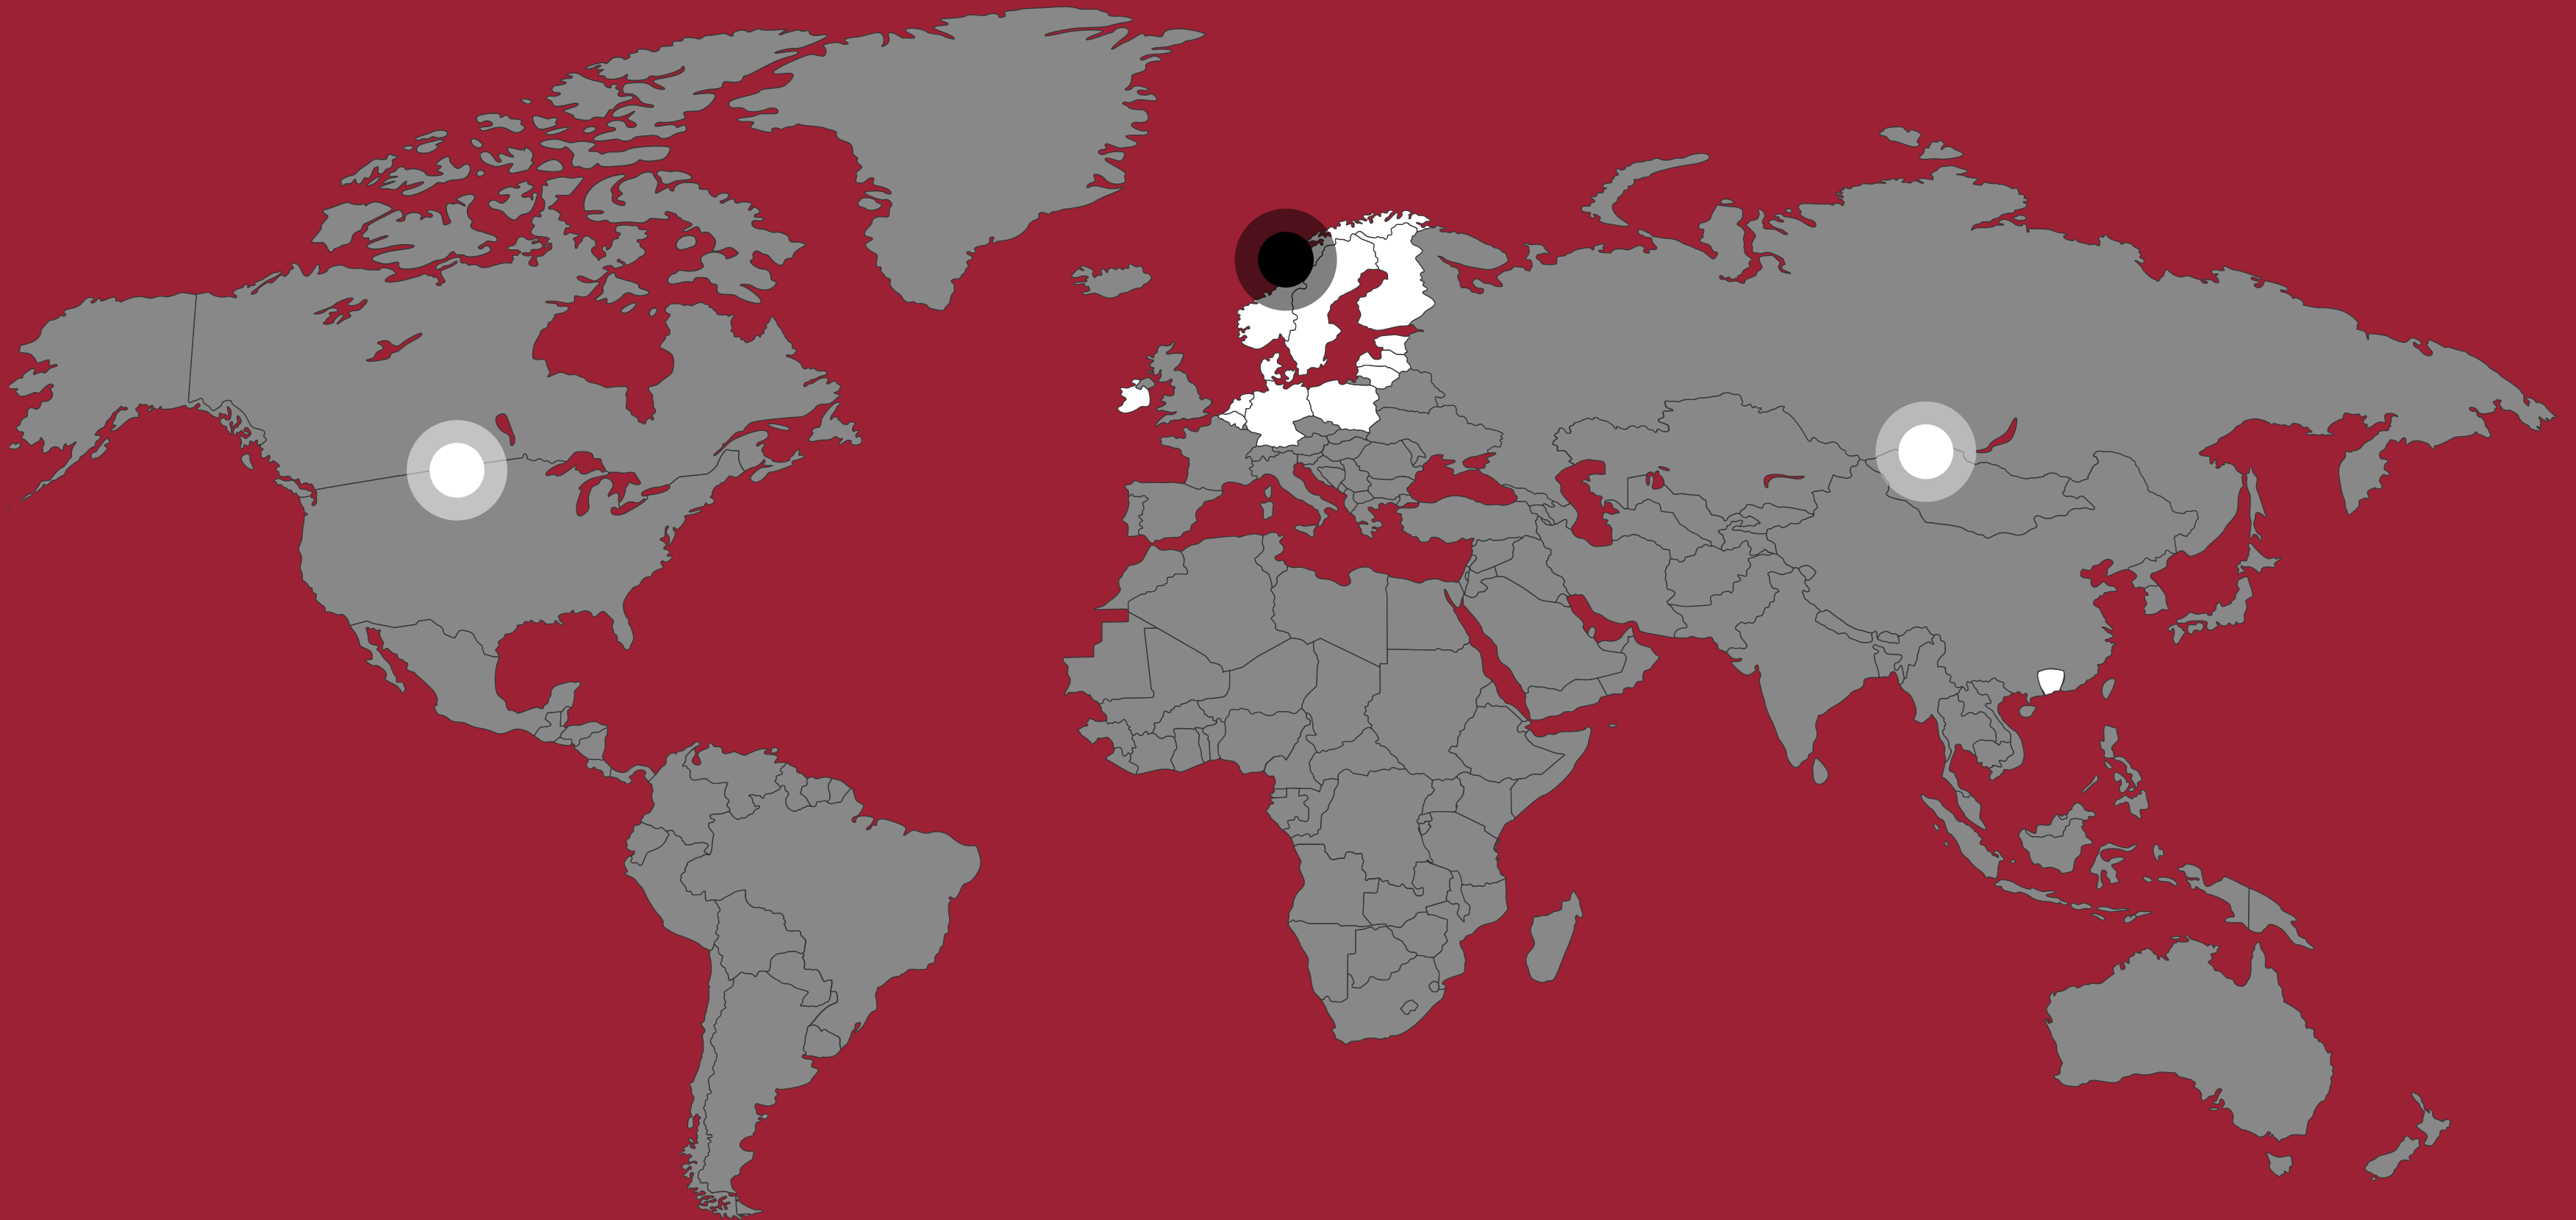

North America

With over 2,000 stores across Canada and over 7,000 stores across the United States, we support the livelihoods of over 99,000 people in this region.

Europe and Other Regions

With nearly 5,300 locations across 14 countries and territories in Europe and other regions including Hong Kong, we support the livelihoods of over 55,000 people in this region.

International

With over nearly 2,000 400 stores across 16 countries and territories including Asian Europe and other regions, we support the livelihoods of thousands of people internationally through our licensing agreements.

