Isleta Resort & Casino Hotel • Albuquerque, New Mexico

WELCOME & PURPOSE

This promotional toolkit is intended for our community partners, allies, sponsors, donors, keynote speakers, presenters, and facilitators.

Thank you for helping share A Meeting of Sacred Waters 2026 with your networks. This gathering relies on relationships, shared responsibility, and collective care for water. Everything below is designed to make it easy to share in ways that feel aligned with your voice and your audience.

Overview

A Meeting of Sacred Waters 2026 brings Indigenous leaders, land and water stewards, knowledge keepers, and practitioners together to advance Indigenous-led solutions grounded in stewardship, responsibility, and care for future generations.

Amid the climate crisis and increasingly threatened water sources, this global gathering supports local and global efforts to restore the health of the world's waters. Sacred Waters creates space for collaboration across communities, strengthens cultural connection, and uplifts relational approaches to water that inspire practical action to protect the most vulnerable waterways across the nation and around the world.
