1. POPI Act

The purpose of the Protection of Personal Information Act¹ (POPIA) is to give effect to the constitutional right to privacy, by safeguarding personal information when processed by a responsible party, subject to justifiable limitations that are aimed at -

- 1.1. balancing the right to privacy against other rights, particularly the right of access to information; and
- 1.2. protecting important interests, including the free flow of information within the Republic and across international borders;
- 1.3. regulate the manner in which personal information may be processed, by establishing conditions, in harmony with international standards, that prescribe the minimum threshold requirements for the lawful processing of personal information;
- 1.4. provide persons with rights and remedies to protect their personal information from processing that is not in accordance with the POPIA; and
- 1.5. establish voluntary and compulsory measures, including the establishment of an Information Regulator, to ensure respect for and to promote, enforce and fulfil the rights protected by the POPIA.

2. PAI Act

- 2.1. The Promotion of Access to Information Act² (PAIA) gives third parties the right to approach private bodies and the government to request information held by them, which is required in the exercise and/or protection of any rights. On request, the private body or government is obliged to release such information unless the PAIA expressly states that the records containing such information may or must not be released.

3. Praxima

- 3.1. Praxima is an international payroll outsourcing and Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) solution, dedicated to simplifying the complexities of global payroll management. We empower businesses of all sizes to seamlessly navigate HR compliance, tax regulations, and payroll processing across multiple countries.

4. Purpose of the PAIA/POPIA Manual

- 4.1. The purpose of this manual is to promote the right of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within Praxima by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which people have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 4.2. Under the POPI Act, Praxima is required to be open and transparent about how Praxima manages personal information and allow individuals to access and correct their personal information.
- 4.3. This PAIA Manual complies with the requirements of guide mentioned in section 10 of the PAIA and recognizes that upon commencement of the POPI Act, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the PAIA and its regulations by private and public bodies.

5. Status and Scope

- 5.1. This manual (version 2) was last updated on 27 May 2025.
- 5.2. This Manual may be revised from time to time to reflect changes in laws and regulations, or changes in Praxima's business operations.

6. Guide of the South African Human Rights Commission

- 6.1. A guide to the PAIA (as contemplated under section 10 of the Act) is available from the South African Human Rights Commission. The guide contains such information as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in the Act. Any enquiries regarding this guide and its contents should be directed to:

8. Information Officer

- 8.1. The Act prescribes the appointment of an Information Officer for public bodies where such Information Officer is responsible to, inter alia, assess request for access to information. The head of a private body fulfils such a function in terms of section 51. Praxima has not opted to appoint an Information Officer to assist in assessing a request for access to information as well as to oversee its required functions in terms of the POPI Act.
- 8.2. The Information Officer appointed in terms of the PAI Act also refers to the Information Officer as referred to in the POPI Act. The Information Officer oversees the functions and responsibilities as required for in terms of both the PAI Act as well as the duties and responsibilities in terms of section 55 of the POPI Act.
- 8.3. The Information Officer may appoint, where it is deemed necessary, Deputy Information Officers, as allowed in terms of section 17 of the Act as well as section 56 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. This is in order to render Praxima as accessible as reasonable possible for requesters of its records and to ensure fulfilment of its obligations and responsibilities as prescribed in terms of section 55 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. All requests for information in terms of this Act must be addressed to the Information Officer.

- 9.2. Contact details for the designated person are set out above.

10. Who may request records held by Praxima

- 10.1. Records held by Praxima may be accessed on request only once the requirements for access have been met. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of Praxima and in this regard, the PAI Act distinguishes between two types of requesters:
- 10.1.1. Personal Requester: A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester. Subject to the provisions of the PAI Act and applicable law, Praxima will provide the requested information, or give access to any record of the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee, if any, for reproduction of the information requested will be charged by Praxima.
- 10.1.2. Other Requester: This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information pertaining to third parties. However, Praxima is not obliged to grant access prior to the requester fulfilling the requirements for access in terms of the PAI Act. The prescribed fee, if any, for reproduction of the information requested will be charged by Praxima.

- 14.7. Employee Records

15. Request Procedure in accordance with PAIA [S 53(1)]

- 15.1. A requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to a request for access to a record. A requester must complete the request form enclosed herewith in Form 2 and submit it, as well as the payment of a request fee, if applicable, to the Information Officer at the physical address, or electronic mail address as stated herein.
- 15.2. The request form must be filled in with enough information to at least enable the information officer to identify:
 - 15.2.1. The record or records requested.
 - 15.2.2. The identity of the requester.
 - 15.2.3. What form of access is required.
 - 15.2.4. The postal address or fax number of the requester.
- 15.3. A requester must state that he or she requires the information to exercise or protect a right and clearly state what the nature of the right is, so to be exercised or protected. The requester must also provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- 15.4. Praxima will process a request within 30 days, unless the requestor has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that this period not be complied with.
- 15.5. If it turns out that it will take more than 30 days to process your request (e.g. due to the volume of records/personal information that must be processed, or difficulty in accessing

- the relevant record/personal information), Praxima may extend the aforementioned 30-day period in processing your request. Should this become necessary, Praxima will notify you.
- 15.6. The requester shall be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he or she must state the way it is required.
- 15.7. If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- 15.8. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally to the Information Officer.
- 15.9. Where your request was a request for confirmation as to whether or not Praxima handles your personal information (i.e. you make a request under POPI s23(1)(a)), Praxima will give you such confirmation.
- 15.10. If you are not satisfied about the way in which your request was handled by Praxima (including where you are not happy about the Access Fee charged by Praxima or the length of time Praxima is taking to process your request), you can make an application for relief to the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status.
- 15.11. Please note that if you wish to make an application to the court, you will need to do so within 180 days of receiving the relevant decision made by Praxima.

16. Fees

- 16.1. The Act provides for two types of fees:
- 16.2. Fees can be found in Schedule 1. A request fee, (which will be a standard fee) and an access fee, which must be calculated by considering reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs where applicable.
- 16.3. When a request is received by the Information Officer of Praxima, the Information Officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, if any, before further processing of the request can take place. If a search for the information is necessary and the preparation and disclosure of the information for disclosure, requires more time than prescribed in the Regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit if the request is granted.

- 16.4. The Information Officer shall withhold information until the requester has paid the fee or fees indicated.
- 16.5. A requester whose request for access to information has been granted, must pay an access fee reproduction, for search, preparation, and for any time in excess of the prescribed hours to prepare the information for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer shall repay the deposit to the requester.

17. Grounds For Refusal of Access to Records in Terms of PAIA

- 17.1. The following are the grounds on which Praxima may, subject to the exceptions contained in Chapter 4 of PAIA, refuse a Request for Access:
- 17.1.1. Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, including a deceased person, where such disclosure of Personal Information would be unreasonable.
 - 17.1.2. Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the Records contain:
 - 17.1.2.1. Trade secrets of that third party;
 - 17.1.2.2. Financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information of the third party, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; and/or
 - 17.1.2.3. Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Praxima, the disclosure of which could put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the third party in commercial competition.
 - 17.1.3. Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement.
 - 17.1.4. Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property.

- 17.1.5. Mandatory protection of records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings.
- 17.1.6. Protection of the commercial information of Praxima, which may include:
 - 17.1.6.1. Trade secrets or proprietary information.
 - 17.1.6.2. Financial/commercial, scientific, or technical information, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Praxima.
 - 17.1.6.3. Information which, if disclosed, could put Praxima at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice Praxima in commercial competition.
 - 17.1.6.4. Computer programs, software or IP which are owned by Praxima, and which are protected by copyright and intellectual property laws.
- 17.1.7. Protection of Research Information - An Information Officer of a public or private body must refuse access to records which contain information relating to research which is or will be undertaken by the public or private body in question or a third party. This refusal of access to information is in circumstances where the disclosure of the record will expose the research of the third party or public or private body, the individual or institution carrying out the research, or the subject matter of the research to a serious disadvantage., and
- 17.1.8. Requests for Records that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.

18. Protection of Personal Information That Is Processed by Praxima

- 18.1. Chapter 3 of POPI provides for the minimum conditions for lawful processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party. These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in POPIA. Below is a description of the eight Conditions for Lawful Processing as contained in POPIA:

- 18.1.1. Accountability - the Responsible Party has an obligation to ensure that there is compliance with POPI in respect of the Processing of Personal Information.
- 18.1.2. Processing limitation - Personal Information must be collected directly from a Data Subject to the extent applicable; must only be processed with the consent of the Data Subject and must only be used for the purposes for which it was obtained.
- 18.1.3. Purpose specification - Personal Information must only be processed for the specific purpose for which it was obtained and must not be retained for any longer than it is needed to achieve such purpose.
- 18.1.4. Further processing limitation - further processing of Personal Information must be compatible with the initial purpose for which the information was collected.
- 18.1.5. Information quality - the Responsible Party must ensure that Personal Information held is accurate and updated regularly and that the integrity of the information is maintained by appropriate security measures.
- 18.1.6. Openness - there must be transparency between the Data Subject and the Responsible Party.
- 18.1.7. Security safeguards - a Responsible Party must take reasonable steps to ensure that adequate safeguards are in place to ensure that Personal Information is being processed responsibly and is not unlawfully accessed.
- 18.1.8. Data Subject participation - the Data Subject must be made aware that their information is being processed and must have provided their informed consent to such processing.

19. Purpose of the Processing of Personal Information by Praxima

- 19.1. Personal Information may only be Processed for a specific purpose. The purposes for which Praxima processes or will process Personal Information, is set out in Schedule 2.

20. Cross-Border Flows Of Personal Information

20.1. Section 72 of POPIA provides that Personal Information may only be transferred out of the Republic of South Africa:

- 20.1.1. If the recipient country can offer such data an “adequate level” of protection. This means that its data privacy laws must be substantially like the Conditions for Lawful Processing as contained in POPIA; or
- 20.1.2. If the Data Subject consents to the transfer of their Personal Information; or
- 20.1.3. If the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Data Subject and the Responsible Party; or
- 20.1.4. If the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Responsible Party and a third party, in the interests of the Data Subject; or
- 20.1.5. If the transfer is for the benefit of the Data Subject, and it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the consent of the Data Subject, and if it were, the Data Subject, would likely provide such consent.

21. Objection to the Processing of Personal Information by a Data Subject

21.1. Section 11 (3) of POPIA and Regulation 2 of the POPIA Regulations provides that a Data Subject may, at any time object to the Processing of his/her/its Personal Information in the prescribed form attached to this manual as Form 1 subject to exceptions contained in POPIA.
