

AbCellera's Quality Policy

At AbCellera, we commit to quality and integrity in the development and production of safe and effective therapeutic antibody medicines.

Carl Hansen, CEO

All AbCellerites are responsible and accountable for quality and data integrity.

We act on this commitment by:

- Fostering a culture of quality to deliver data and materials we trust.
- Maintaining a robust Quality Management System to meet or exceed all applicable regulatory requirements.
- Being proactive in the continued improvement of our systems and processes.

Rigor is at the core of our work. We all care about someone who needs medicines.
