Our Objective

Design Challenge Question

How can we design a user friendly tool that is clear and concise for sexual assault centre staff who are looking for the appropriate nearby service?

Research

Library Research

- What places support sexual assault survivors?
How do they support them?
- What is the demand like for support services?
- How does a google map system work?

User Testing

- Variety of different users
- Range of tech literacy
- Variety of ages (12-70 years old)
- Variety of genders

Research

Interviews

- Emergency room doctor
- Food delivery driver
- IT director

Our Solution

- A database consisting of the hospitals, SAC centres, police stations, walk in clinics, and homeless shelters in Ontario.
- This database is used to create a visual map tool to highlight the location, services, and further information of Each place
- This information is easy to read and access for SAC staff

Future Looking Solutions

Available to the Public

- Help Survivors find help faster, without the need of waiting to get help.

Training Pamphlet

- Help staff who may not know how to use map applications
- Could be at work desks or a online version as well
- Would make training a lot more cost and time efficient

Thank You!
