Drinkware

From our editors:
"I use this everyday
for my morning
coffee!"

Combines the convenience of having drinks that stay hot or cold for hours with a sophisticated design. This mug is perfect for sipping coffee while working from home or on a short walk around the neighborhood.

A trendy skinny tumbler made from recycled materials. This tumbler features double wall insulation that keeps beverages cold for hours, a durable powder coating that offers sweat-proof sipping, and a screw top lid with silicone straw holder that allows you to sip securely without splashes or leaks.

Ensure that you always have crisp, cold hydration in hand. The ergonomic shape and built-in flip straw of this tumbler allow for easy sipping, and snaps tight to stay fully leakproof. Stanley's double-wall vacuum insulation keeps your drinks icy cold, and a rotating handle makes it easy to take anywhere.
