About this notice

This Cookie Notice is a companion to the RecrutiFi Privacy Policy. It lists every cookie and similar technology (such as browser local storage and embedded scripts) used on www.recruitifi.com, including the name, type, provider, purpose, and duration of each. We update this notice whenever our tooling changes; the Privacy Policy describes the categories and the consent model, and this notice carries the current inventory.

We do not use cookies for targeted advertising, and we do not sell or share Personal Data as those terms are defined under US state privacy laws.

How consent works

How we ask for your permission depends on where you are visiting from. If you are in the European Economic Area or the United Kingdom, no cookies other than essential cookies are set unless and until you allow them through the consent banner; you can accept all categories, reject all, or make a per-category choice, and each option is equally available. If you are visiting from the United States, non-essential categories are active by default, and you can opt out at any time, in full or per category.

We honor the Global Privacy Control (GPC) browser signal. If your browser sends GPC, we automatically treat it as an opt-out of non-essential cookies and, for the purposes of US state privacy laws, as a request to opt out of the "sale" or "sharing" of Personal Data. When this happens, the consent banner and preference center display "The GPC signal has been honored."

Your choice is stored for 180 days, after which we ask again. Withdrawing consent stops the affected cookies from being set or read from that point onward; it does not remove cookies already on your device, which you can delete through your browser settings.

The cookies and similar technologies we use

Essential (always active)

Required for the website and the consent tool itself to function. These cannot be switched off.

Analytics (set only where permitted)

Measure how visitors use our marketing website to improve it. Google Analytics is configured through Google Consent Mode with all advertising signals denied; it is used for measurement only, is not joined to platform account data, and its data retention is set to the shortest period Google offers (currently two months).

Marketing (runs only where permitted)

Attributes visits that reach us from third-party review sites. This category currently uses an embedded script from G2 (tracking-api.g2.com) that records that a visit originated from a G2 listing. The script sets no cookie on your device, which is why no cookie row appears here. We do not use targeted-advertising cookies.

The logged-in platform

When you sign in to the RecrutiFi platform, it sets cookies that are strictly necessary to authenticate you, keep your session secure, and operate support chat for platform users. These are part of delivering the contracted service, are governed by the Terms of Service and the Privacy Policy, and are not subject to the marketing-website consent banner.

Changing your choices

Use the Preferences button in the bottom-left corner of any page of www.recrutifi.com to reopen the preference center and change your choices at any time. Most web browsers also allow you to delete or block cookies through their settings; blocking essential cookies may limit parts of the website.
