

Twin Lakes Church Prayer Update-02/17/26

PRAISE

Lisa Galli had lung surgery to remove a small malignant lesion. She says, “ Praise! I am healing well from lung surgery. I had the cancerous lower left lobe removed. All lymph nodes taken were clear! No further treatment is needed, just follow up monitoring. Thank you for your prayers and support! To God be the Glory...”

TLC, MISSIONS, OUTREACHES & MINISTRIES

Continue to pray for Little Flock Children's Home in India and their staff person, Gracelyn. She collapsed last week and the doctors determined she had brain fever. As of Saturday, there was no brain function. It looks very grim. Pray for the Little Flock staff and children who are grieving and are adjusting to this news

Remember to pray for TJ and Candice Brumme who serve in North Africa. Pray there is a breakthrough for them to apply for residency in the next 6 months. Pray for the right local partner they can hire and/or another certified guide to work alongside them in their rock climbing business. A family they have befriended are open to the gospel. Pray for M and F's whole family to read and discover God this year.

Pray for Keith and Lori Beyars who serve globally with CRU. Keith continues to train leaders and disciple, coach and mentor those out in the field. Pray for him as he travels and builds into these relationships. Pray for Lori as she has taken on a new role outside of CRU and is a Learning and Development Specialist for a chocolate company in Chicago.

InterVarsity Christian Fellowship at UCSC-for students at UCSC to have a softened heart towards the Lord. For their mental health, a lot of students have been struggling. For the InterVarsity Chapter at UCSC. For spiritual depth and for students to fall (deeper) in love with Jesus. And for the students to develop a missional heart.
