

Mastermind Session

Quick recap

Warren led a mastermind session where participants were instructed to conduct one-minute check-ins and 20-minute deep dives, with the first 10 minutes dedicated to Q&A and the second 10 minutes for problem-solving. The group discussed travel experiences, particularly in Vietnam and Australia, and Warren shared a tip about repurposing old content into new content with just four button clicks. The session concluded with an announcement that the next content-focused meeting would cover crafting high-value coaching packages and sales presentations, marking the final week of the content section.

Summary

Mastermind Session: Content and Travel

Warren led a mastermind session where participants were instructed to conduct one-minute check-ins and 20-minute deep dives, with the first 10 minutes dedicated to Q&A and the second 10 minutes for problem-solving. The group discussed travel experiences, particularly in Vietnam and Australia, and Warren shared a tip about repurposing old content into new content with just four button clicks. The session concluded with an announcement that the next content-focused meeting would cover crafting high-value coaching packages and sales presentations, marking the final week of the content section.