

WealthBriefing Swiss EAM Awards 2025

7 March 2025

At the prestigious awards ceremony on March 5 in Zurich, IMT Asset Management AG was recognized for the fourth consecutive year with the Annual WealthBriefing Swiss EAM Award as the Best Independent Asset Manager based in Liechtenstein.

In addition, Dr. Thomas Trauth, CEO of IMT Asset Management, received the distinguished “Lifetime Achievement” award, honouring his exceptional contributions to the financial industry.

These prestigious awards recognize outstanding independent asset managers and industry leaders in Switzerland and Liechtenstein who demonstrate innovation, excellence, and sustained success. The judging panel consists of independent, renowned industry experts.

Dr. Erik Nuener, Chairman of the Board, expressed his appreciation:

"Receiving this award once again as the leading asset manager in Liechtenstein fills us with pride. It is a recognition of our dedicated team, whose expertise, innovation, and passion drive excellence in asset management. My deepest gratitude goes to our clients for their longstanding trust and to our employees for their exceptional commitment. This honour reaffirms our holistic approach—successful investment strategies, tailored solutions, and strong partnerships. We remain committed to this path, delivering first-class services to our clients in the future."

A Successful Year for IMT Asset Management

IMT Asset Management AG is one of the largest independent asset and fund management firms in Liechtenstein, serving both institutional and private clients in wealth management, fund management, and investment controlling.

The year 2024 was particularly successful for IMT Asset Management. The IMT strategy funds once again delivered outstanding performance and were awarded 4- and 5-star ratings by Morningstar. Despite challenging market conditions, its private equity portfolios also achieved solid results. Furthermore, Citywire recognized IMT Asset Management as one of the Top 50 external Swiss asset managers, further validating the exceptional quality of our services.
