Call to Worship (from Every Moment Holy): Pray Together

Oh Christ, King of Snow, we bless you for bidding this blanket of white to cover us in holy hush, that our hearts might be quited at the sight, that we might sense the emptiness of canvas over which your Spirit broods, upon which you would create and recreate our hearts in the image of the one who first spoke snow into existence. Amen.

Confession of Sin: Confess Together

Merciful God, we so often forsake you, the fountain of living waters, and drink from other wells to satisfy our deepest thirst. Security, comfort, money, family, romance, acceptance, careers—These become the wells from which we drink deeply. But they never completely satisfy. They are broken wells, incapable of holding the kind of water we truly need. Only you, gracious God, can truly satisfy us. Only you have the living water we so desperately need. Help us to recognize our broken cisterns, to repent of them, and experience anew your forgiving love and living water.

Colossians 2:13-14 (ESV)

"And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross."

SermonClosing Prayer: Leader Prays

Heavenly Father, we thank You for gathering us in Your presence today and for the truth of Your Word, which we have heard and reflected upon. Forgive us for where we have fallen short and for our shortcomings in hearing and living out Your will.

As You send us out from this place, strengthen us by Your Spirit to be doers of the Word, not just hearers. Let the peace of Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit go with us, guiding our thoughts, shaping our actions, and empowering us to live boldly for You this week.

Help us to be Your ambassadors, sharing Your goodness and truth with others, and to trust Your providence in all our challenges and joys. May Your name be glorified in all we say and do.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
