Join our Team White Oak School and help raise money to support Safe Passage in Northampton.

White Oak School is participating in the Hot Chocolate Run to support Safe Passage – the Hampshire County organization building safety, hope and justice for families who have lived with domestic violence.

Safe Passage delivers an array of support, counseling and prevention services that offer safety, hope and healing to adults and children experiencing violence in Hampshire County and surrounding towns. Safe Passage is able to offer services free of charge to clients thanks to the generosity of Hot Chocolate run participants.

To join Team White Oak School, please use the QR code to register for the event or donate and help us reach our $500 goal!

Join Mrs. Lynch, Ms. Michalski, Mrs. Kelly and Josephine Cestola on December 7th!

You can register online for the 5k run or the 3k walk.

You can participate in person the day of or complete a virtual walk/run!
