FROM THE ASHES

THE ORISHAS OF INÁ

In ancient Yoruba mythology, the supreme entity Olodumare created a pantheon of divine beings known as the Orishas.

Similarly to the gods and goddesses of ancient Greek and Roman mythology, these deities each governed specific domains and were entrusted with certain responsibilities within the human world.

The Orishas served as intermediaries, bridging the gap between Olodumare's divine realm and humanity. This menu is a tribute to the Orishas.

Through INA, they rise from the ashes of history, enriching this cocktail collection with centuries of mythological power, ancestral wisdom and influence.
