

THE LIBERTINE

THE ROYAL EXCHANGE

A Chamber Of Spirited Revelry In The Foundations Of The City

The vaults beneath The Royal Exchange house a new fortune. Step through the unassuming door on Cornhill and down a spiral staircase where there lies a den of spirited talk and lively tippling; introducing The Libertine.

Under vaulted arches which once guarded the spices, silks and gold that enriched London in years gone by sits an impressive bar worthy of the modern City.

The Grasshopper

The Grasshopper is the family crest of Sir Thomas Gresham, the founder and visionary behind The Royal Exchange. The legend goes that in the thirteenth century, his ancestor Roger de Gresham was abandoned as a baby and left in the tall grass where he was finally discovered by a woman whose attention was drawn to the child by a grasshopper. The symbol can still be found today on the weathervane atop The Royal Exchange.
