Checkerboard tiles made from marble and limestone, brings a timeless elegance to European-inspired floors. The classic pattern, achieved by alternating between the tumbled veined marble and the soft, matte limestone, creates a sophisticated visual impact with a blend of luxury and natural charm. The 200x200mm size ensures that the alternating colors and textures are well-proportioned, enhancing the overall aesthetic. Whether opting for a high-contrast combination like white marble with emerald marble or a more subtle mix of sofia and palissandro, these tiles offer a versatile and stylish choice. Their varied textures and refined appearance make them ideal for both contemporary and traditional interiors, reflecting the classic elegance of European flooring with a modern twist.
