INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS

This is to issue a strict warning to all candidates appearing for the forthcoming Semester End Examinations (SEE) regarding mandatory compliance with Institute examination regulations. The following instructions must be adhered to without exception.

1. Admission Ticket (Hall Ticket):

Candidates are required to compulsorily carry and use the same Admission Ticket throughout the SEE and preserve it until the completion of all examinations. In case a student appears to the examination hall without the hall ticket or loses the admission ticket, a duplicate admission ticket must be obtained only from the Examination Section upon payment of a penalty fee of ₹250/-. Students are strictly prohibited from generating or carrying new copy in case the old copy is lost/damaged.

2. College Identity Card:

Wearing the valid college identity card is mandatory at all times during the examination. If a candidate is found not possessing the college identity card during the examination, a penalty fee of ₹250/- shall be levied for each instance of non-possession. Candidates not having college ID card or valid ID card tags are required to procure the same from SDSC prior to the commencement of examinations upon payment of the prescribed fee.

3. Possession of Another Student's Identity Card:

If any student is found in possession of another student's college identity card, such an act shall be treated as a serious offence. Strict disciplinary action shall be initiated as per examination malpractice regulations, and the identity card involved shall be confiscated immediately. Such cases may also lead to further penalties as decided by the competent authority.

4. Dress Code:

Candidates must strictly adhere to the prescribed dress code. Wearing torn jeans, jogging pants, or any other improper attire is strictly prohibited inside the examination hall.

5. Any candidate found indulging in malpractice during the Semester End Examinations (SEE) will be strictly dealt with as per VTU/NIE regulations.

Failure to comply with any of the above instructions shall be considered seriously, and appropriate disciplinary action shall be initiated in accordance with Institute regulations
