

ABOUT SANARE WILMINGTON

Sanare Wilmington, NC supports adults dealing with the ongoing impact of trauma while balancing work, relationships, and daily responsibilities. Designed as a trauma-focused location, individual outpatient therapy is also available to support a wide range of mental health needs.

IOP here takes place in small groups led by trauma-trained therapists who bring steadiness, creativity, and human presence into the room. Sessions blend grounding practices, therapeutic work, and group connection, creating space to separate the past from the present and allow confidence and stability to grow through steady practice.

Whether you're choosing care for yourself or someone else, Sanare Wilmington is built to support steady, lasting change.
