

Totality Core: an introduction

What is Totality Core?

Totality Core is your dedicated mobile and web portal designed to manage all aspects of your account administration. Built for maximum security and oversight and designed for clarity, Totality core is a new chapter in your investing experience with us.

We've taken decisive action to bolster your cybersecurity by moving sensitive operations—such as account administration and funding and withdrawals—into a standalone, enterprise-grade portal, separate from our trading platforms.

Why Totality Core?

Totality Core is your all-in-one platform for managing your portfolio and keeping your client details up-to-date.

-  Clarity: See the full picture of your financial world in one place.
-  Control: With a single click, directly enter the Totality Edge trading environment.
-  Confidence: Your account activity and personal data are protected with advanced encryption and compliance standards.
