Introduction

DonHeard is a community-driven project built around a powerful penguin character symbolizing strength, freedom, and financial empowerment. Born from creativity and meme culture, DonHeard rises as the Don of the memecoins - leading a movement of growth, independence, and real community ownership.

Vision

To establish a true financial empire where creativity, education, and blockchain freedom collide - empowering individuals across the world through the spirit of DonHeard.

Mission

- Create a global, supportive financial community.
- Build creative tools and platforms to empower smarter financial decisions.
- Lead the new wave of meme projects with meaning, impact, and longevity.
- Protect freedom of expression and innovation in the Web3 world.

Presale Information

- Important Notice:

A small portion of tokens (15.53% of total supply) is locked on Smithii due to an early presale creation.

These tokens are locked and priced higher.

The Smithii presale is no longer supported and is not recommended for purchase.

- Official Presale:

The only official and active presale is on Gempad, with approximately 13% of total supply reserved for fair community distribution.

- Presale Structure:

- Divided into 4 phases.

- Token price will increase over each phase leading up to the DEX launch.

- Price Movement:

- Early phases offer the best entry points.

- The price will rise steadily until the official launch in July.

- Fair Distribution:

- Tokens are split across all presale phases to ensure fair access for all supporters.
