

Dress and Etiquette

Metropolitan welcomes non-members to the Club as lesson/program clients, where a booking with a Metropolitan teaching professional has been made prior to arrival.

It is noted that lesson/program clients are not permitted access to the Clubhouse under any circumstance unless as a guest of a member, or as a formal component of the lesson or development program, at which time the client will be in the company of the Metropolitan teaching professional.

General Etiquette

Singlet-type tops, casual T-shirts and garments with any advertising or slogans (except for discreet brand name and club logos) are not permitted.

Golf shoes of any kind are permitted in the Clubhouse, however sports shoes are not permitted in the Dining Room.

More formal attire may be required for nominated Club functions or events. Hats or visors may be worn in the Golf Shop or locker room but not in other areas of the Clubhouse.

Men - Course and Clubhouse

The traditional dress is collared or turtle-neck golf shirt or skivvy with pants, plus fours or tailored shorts. Jean style pants, cargo pants, track suits, brief, baggy or below knee length shorts, sports shoes and pants tucked into socks are not permitted on the course or in the Clubhouse. Shirts must be tucked into pants.

Socks must be worn with shoes at all times, except when wearing “boat” shoes. Short socks that are either predominantly white or compliment the colour of other clothing are permitted. Long socks must be pulled up at all times.

Women - Course and Clubhouse

Tailored pants, three-quarter pants and shorts are permitted. Jean style, tight stretch, track suit type, stirrup pants, cargo pants and pants tucked into socks are not permitted on the course or in the Clubhouse. Suitable shirts with or without a collar are acceptable and must be tucked into pants or skirts unless they are specifically designed to be worn out.

Short socks that are either predominantly white or complement the colour of other clothing are permitted.
