What is the Parent Teacher Association (PTA)?

The PTA is an organization of parents/guardians at Seth Low that provides ways to connect with our children's education, share ideas, and enrich the school community in partnership with teachers and staff to support student success. The PTA develops its own bylaws, elects officers, holds monthly meetings, and fundraises to support these goals. Some examples of what the PTA does include:

- Supporting school activities like Parent-Teacher Conferences, open houses, and curriculum workshops;
- Fundraising to benefit educational, social, and cultural activities in the school such as dances, festivals, teacher/staff appreciation, and parent learning and engagement opportunities.

How do you join the PTA?

You already belong! All Seth Low parents are automatically members of the school's PTA. There are no pre-qualifications required to participate in the PTA. (The term "parent" includes the student's parent or guardian, or any person in a parental or custodial relationship to the student.)

The PTA is run by parent volunteers LIKE YOU

Want to make Seth Low even more amazing? We need your help, and so do our students. Did you know over 500 studies show that when parents are involved in their children's education, grades and test scores improve, schools experience fewer disciplinary problems, and students are more likely to attend college?

Volunteering with the PTA doesn't have to be a huge time commitment – however long you can support students through various activities and fundraisers at the school is great. We are a small team of parent volunteers with a lot planned this year so we welcome/encourage you to donate time to the PTA when you can, even if it's an hour each month to attend PTA meetings!

We understand that life is busy so if you're short on time, you can also help by providing financial support. Donating $5 or more to the PTA would enable us to subsidize various school needs impacted by city budget cuts. (Donations are requested as a contribution and not a requirement for membership or running for office.)

To get involved, please complete the survey on other side of this page so we can contact you about upcoming meetings, events, and other ways to help make the Seth Low community even stronger for all of our students! Thanks so much! – PTA Executive Board
