

WRITE A SHORT STORY...

A storm forces your character to take shelter in an old house they've never seen before.

Sensory Details

Describe the house your character takes shelter in. What does it look, smell, or feel like? Use at least three senses in your description.