Beaver Creek Red ●

Vintage 2020/2021. Cellared in Stainless steel and French Oak for 16 months.

Casa Roja is a blend of Nova Scotia grown grapes including Cabernet Foch, Petit Millot and DeChaunac. This wine is very fruit forward with notes of black current and plum. It is medium bodied, lively, and well balanced, lightly oaked and has a lengthy finish of toasted cedar and Medjool dates.

Enjoy with planked salmon, bacon cheeseburgers or barbequed striploin.

Beaver Creek Riesling ●

Vintage 2019. Cellared in Stainless steel for 2.5 years.

This estate grown Riesling is bright, lively and fruit-forward, well balanced with notes of lemon and honey dew melon.

Enjoy with tarragon chicken, Herbes de Provence, sushi and sweet chili thai dishes to name a few!

Beaver Creek Rose ●

Vintage 2018/2019. Cellared in Stainless steel and French Oak for 3.5 years.

This rose is a blend of Cabernet Foch, Petit Millot and DeChaunac carefully crafted in the traditional method of a true rose producing a wine that is light and fruit forward.

Perfect pairings would be vinaigrette based salads, rustic pasta dishes and charcuterie.
