- c. Indemnification by Athelas. Subject to limitations of liability set forth in these Terms of Agreement, Athelas agrees to defend Customer and its officers, directors, employees, and Agents (a “Customer Indemnified Party”) from and against any Losses resulting from or arising out of a successful claim resulting from the negligent acts or willful misconduct of Athelas or a claim that the Software infringes or misappropriates the patent, trade secret, trademark, copyright, or other Intellectual Property Rights of any third party (an “Infringement Claim”). Athelas will pay all Losses (whether by settlement or award of by a final judicial judgment) incurred by the Customer Indemnified Parties from any such Claim. In the event of an Infringement Claim, Athelas may, at its election, and sole expense, (i) modify the Software so that such Software is non-infringing and functionally equivalent; or (ii) obtain the right for Customer and Customer’s patients to continue using the Software at no additional cost to Customer. If none of the foregoing is commercially practicable, Athelas may immediately terminate the Service Agreement upon reasonable notice to Customer.
- d. Procedure. Each Party shall provide to the other Party prompt notice of any Claim for which they are seeking indemnification. The indemnified Party may have counsel reasonably acceptable to the indemnifying Party observe the proceedings at the indemnified Party’s expense, provided the indemnifying Party retains sole control of the defense of the Claim. The indemnified Party has the right to approve any settlement that affirmatively places on the indemnified Party an obligation that has a material adverse effect on the indemnified Party other than requiring the indemnified Party to cease using all or a portion of the Services or to pay sums eligible for indemnification under the Service Agreement.

Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

12. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY.

- a. No Consequential Damages. Neither Party will be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential or punitive damages, or any damages for lost data, business interruption, lost profits, lost revenue, or lost business arising out of or in connection with the Service Agreement, including without limitation any such damages arising out of Athelas's provision or Customer's use of the Services or the results thereof, even if a party has been advised of the possibility of such damages. In no event will Athelas be liable for the cost of procurement of substitute goods or Services.
- b. Limits on Liability. In no case will Athelas be liable for any aggregate amount greater than the amounts paid and payable by customer to Athelas under the Service Agreement during the twelve (12) month period preceding the date on which the claim first accrued, without regard to whether such claim is based in contract, tort (including negligence), product liability, or otherwise.
- c. Essential Purpose. Customer acknowledges that the terms in this Section (Limitations of Liability) are a bargained for reasonable allocation of the risk between the parties and will apply (a) to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, and (b) even if an exclusive or limited remedy stated herein fails of its essential purpose.
- d. Limitation of Action. No action (regardless of form) arising out of the Service Agreement may be commenced by Customer against Athelas more than two (2) years after the cause of action arose.

13. MISCELLANEOUS.

- a. Subcontractors. Athelas may use its affiliates or subcontractors to perform its obligations under the Service Agreement.
- b. Notices. Any notices, requests, consents, demands, or other communications required or permitted under the Service Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given when delivered, if delivered by hand, sent by email, or delivered by nationally recognized commercial overnight courier; and in each case to the parties at the following addresses or email addresses (or at other addresses or email addresses specified by a notice) with applicable postage or delivery charges prepaid. Notices to Athelas shall be sent to the following address: Athelas Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal office located at 160 S. Whisman Rd. Mountain View, CA 94041, with a copy to legal@athelas.com. Notices to Customer shall be sent to the address or email address specified in the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any changes to Services may be noticed via the Provider- Facing Dashboard and will be deemed effective upon receipt by Customer's Primary Contact.
- c. Amendment. Except as may otherwise be specified in the Service Agreement, the Service Agreement may be modified, changed, or amended only by a written amendment mutually agreed to and signed by both Parties.
- d. Waiver; Severability. A Party's right to enforce a provision of the Service Agreement may only be waived in writing and signed by the Party against which the waiver is to be enforced. Failure to enforce any provision of the Service Agreement in any one instance will not be construed as a waiver of future performance of that provision, and the Party's obligations under that provision will continue in full force and effect. The provisions of the Service Agreement are severable. The invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision in any jurisdiction will be construed and enforced as if it has been narrowly drawn so as not to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable to the extent possible and will in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any other terms or provisions in that jurisdiction or of this entire Agreement in that jurisdiction.

- e. Medicare and Medicaid Fraud Representation. Each Party represents that: (i) it is not currently excluded, debarred or suspended from participation in any federal health care programs and is not under investigation or by any state or federal governmental agency that may lead to such an exclusion, debarment or suspension; and (ii) to the best of its reasonable knowledge, none of its employees, officers, directors and any health care providers contracted to provide Services hereunder is currently excluded, debarred or suspended from participation in any federal health care programs and is not under investigation or by any state or federal governmental agency that may lead to such an exclusion, debarment or suspension. If any of the representations and warranties set forth in this Section ceases to be true, the Party with this information will promptly remove, or cause to be removed, the excluded, debarred or suspended individual from providing Services hereunder and notify the other Party within one (1) business day of confirming the exclusion, debarment or suspension. It is understood and agreed to by the Parties that the ability to verify if any individual is currently debarred is dependent upon the accuracy of the information contained on the OIG list of excluded persons and the representations of such individual.
- f. Governing Law. The Service Agreement, any additional applicable terms and conditions incorporated by reference therein, and each Party's rights and obligations under each will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Delaware without giving effect to conflicts of law principles. The Parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of, and waive any venue objections against, state or federal courts sitting in Santa Clara County, California in any litigation arising out of the Service Agreement.
- g. Assignment. Neither Party may assign or transfer the Service Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party; provided, however, that Athelas may assign or transfer the Service Agreement without Customer's consent to any of Athelas's affiliates, subsidiaries, entities controlled by or under common control with Athelas, or in the event of a merger, change of control or sale of substantially all of its assets. The Service Agreement will bind the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns and will inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns.
- h. Nonsolicitation. Without the prior written consent of Athelas, during the period commencing on the date hereof and terminating on the second anniversary of the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Customer nor any of its affiliates will solicit to hire or hire (as an employee, independent contractor or otherwise) any person who becomes known to Customer as a result of the performance of the Services hereunder and who works or has in the past six months worked (as an employee, independent contractor or otherwise) for Athelas or its affiliates. Customer acknowledges that Athelas's damages resulting from any breach by Customer of this Section would be impracticable and extremely difficult to fix in an actual amount. Therefore, in the event that Customer violates this Section, Customer will immediately pay to Athelas as liquidated damages an amount equal to thirty percent (30%) of the first year's total compensation package offered by Customer to that Athelas employee, independent contractor or otherwise.
- i. No Guarantees. The Parties hereto acknowledge and agree that Athelas cannot guarantee the results or effectiveness of any of the Services rendered or to be rendered by Athelas. Rather, Athelas shall conduct its operations and provide its Services in a professional manner and in accordance with good industry practice. Athelas will use its best efforts and does not promise results, including, but not limited to, guarantees regarding first pass rate, denial rate, volume of collections, ability to collect AR, or success of appeals.
- j. Invalidity. If any provision of the Service Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, the other provisions of the Service Agreement will be unimpaired, and the unenforceable provision will be deemed modified so that it is enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by law (unless such modification is not permitted by law, in which case such provision will be disregarded).

- k. Force Majeure. If any Party is unable to perform any of its obligations under the Service Agreement (other than payment obligations) because of any cause beyond the reasonable control of and not the fault of the Party invoking this section, including any act of God, fire, casualty, flood, earthquake, war, strike, lockout, epidemic or pandemic, destruction of production facilities, riot, insurrection or material unavailability, and if the nonperforming Party has been unable to avoid or overcome its effects through the exercise of commercially reasonable efforts, such nonperforming Party will give prompt notice to the other Party, its performance will be excused, and the time for its performance will be extended for the period of delay or inability to perform due to such occurrences. If performance is extended under this section for more than sixty (60) days, then at any time before reinstatement of the performance, the other Party may terminate the Service Agreement upon notice to the non-performing Party.
- l. Relationship of the Parties. The sole relationship between the Parties is solely that of independent contractors. The Service Agreement will not create a joint venture, partnership, agency, employment, or other relationship between the Parties.
- m.
- n. Survival. Any term of the Service Agreement that contemplates performance and payments after termination of the Service Agreement will survive expiration or termination and continue until fully satisfied.
- o. Entire Agreement. The Service Agreement, including all applicable exhibits and other documents incorporated by reference therein, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties relating to this subject matter and supersedes all prior or simultaneous understandings, representations, discussions, negotiations, and agreements, whether written or oral.
- p. Counterparts. The Service Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and may be executed electronically. Each counterpart or electronic copy thereof will be an original, but all such counterparts will constitute a single instrument.
