Welcome & Announcements (back of bulletin)

*Call to worship

One: Come, people of God, gather not at the center of power but at the edges—where the Spirit still speaks.

Many: We come from different paths, carrying different stories—but the same Spirit calls us together.

One: In a world that values expansion and empire, we come to listen, to fast, to worship, and to wait.

Many: Set us apart, O God—not for greatness, but for faithfulness. Not for comfort, but for courage.

All: Come, Holy Spirit. Disrupt what needs disrupting. Send us where love must go.

*Opening hymn      “Your Love Awakens Me” by Phil Wickham

Opening prayer

All: God of the margins and the middle,
You speak not only from temples and towers, but from prayer circles in border towns. Speak again to us today. Interrupt our routines, release our grip on certainty, and awaken in us a new willingness to be sent—wherever love is needed. (next page→)

Gather us like that church in Antioch—diverse, listening, Spirit-led—that we too may become a people of worship, courage, and movement. We pray in Jesus’ name, Amen.

Scripture reading Acts 13:1-3 (CEB)

1 The church at Antioch included prophets and teachers:

Barnabas, Simeon (nicknamed Niger), Lucius from Cyrene, Manaen (a childhood friend of Herod the ruler), and Saul.

2 As they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Appoint Barnabas and Saul to the work I have called them to undertake.” 3 After they fasted and prayed, they laid their hands on these two and sent them off.

One: This is the Word of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

All: Generous God, you give not from abundance but from love. As we offer our gifts today, may they not just support programs, but fuel mission—bold, humble, and Spirit-led. Set apart what we give. Use it to cross borders of fear and extend bridges of grace. Amen.
