*Opening hymn    "Open My Eyes, That I May See"    UMH #454
lyrics on the screen

Opening prayer

All: God of widening mercy, you meet us where we are and invite us to see beyond what we have known.

Open our eyes to your presence in people, places, and stories we have overlooked.

Open our hearts to your Spirit, who teaches us not only what to believe, but how to live together in love.

As we worship, shape our vision, soften our assumptions, and lead us deeper into your grace. We offer ourselves to you—open, attentive, and willing to be changed. Amen.

Scripture reading   Acts 10:34–43 (CEB)

34 Peter said, “I really am learning that God doesn’t show partiality to one group of people over another. 35 Rather, in every nation, whoever worships him and does what is right is acceptable to him. 36 This is the message of peace he sent to the Israelites by proclaiming the good news through Jesus Christ: He is Lord of all! 37 You know what happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism John preached. 38 You know about Jesus of Nazareth, whom God anointed with the Holy Spirit and endowed with power. Jesus traveled around doing good and healing everyone oppressed by the devil because God was with him. 39 We are witnesses of everything he did, both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a tree, 40 but God raised him up on the third day and allowed him to be seen, 41 not by everyone but by us. We are witnesses whom God chose beforehand, who ate and drank with him after God raised him from the dead. 42 He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead. 43 All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

One: This is the Word of God. All: Thanks be to God.

Offering prayer: Please join me in offering prayer Generous God, you have given us more than we can measure—grace that precedes us and mercy that widens our hearts.
As we offer these gifts, we offer ourselves as well—
our attention, our listening, our care for one another.
Use what is given today to help us notice more clearly, love more honestly, and live more responsibly together.
May our giving reflect your justice, your compassion,
and your abiding presence among us. Amen.
